

THE ROARK CEMETERY

This cemetery is located on Quicksand Creek. From the junction of State Routes 15 and 30, in Jackson, KY, take Route 30 exactly two miles. There will be a church on the right, with a swinging bridge just behind it. At the present time, the swinging bridge is considered unsafe to cross. There is a point near the bridge that can be crossed at low water with a four-wheel drive vehicle. The cemetery is across the bridge, up a small hill and to the right. John Back's gravestone is in this cemetery.
